Have You Ever Wanted To Run Away?

Psalm 11:1-7

Have you ever felt like running away? “In the Lord I put my trust; how can you say to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?” (v.1) All of us have days when we feel like quitting. We throw up our hands and say, “That’s it. I’ve had it, and I’m leaving.”

At times we do need to get away to rest and regain our perspective. Jesus even said to his disciples on several occasions “Let’s just depart and rest a while.” Vance Havner once remarked, “If you don’t come apart and rest, you’ll come apart. But the Psalmist was not just talking about a vacation. “The wicked bend their bow” (v.2).” He was saying, “The wicked are doing this and that. Let’s get out of here and go to some mountaintop and have a good Bible conference.”

When you feel like running or flying away, remember, God’s throne is secure. The Lord is in His holy temple. In a difficult time Isaiah looked up and saw the Lord on His throne, high and lifted up. In the Book of Revelation, John saw the Lord on His throne, and it gave him new courage.

So the advice we gain from these scriptures is simply this. Don’t flee to the mountain; flee to the throne of grace. When you feel like quitting or running away, remember that you can’t run away from your troubles and you can’t run away from yourself. The solution is not running away; it’s running to. It is running to the throne of grace and finding grace to help in time of need. Jesus is interceding for you and the Word of God also tells us that the Holy Spirit is lifting you up to the Father.

The times when you feel like quitting are times of great opportunity that God can use to help you grow closer and more dependent upon Him. When you want to run it is time to claim your privilege as a child of God and approach the throne of grace. The help you will receive will be personal and tailored just for you. God loves you and is for you even in difficult times.
