What A Great Revival! Fisher

We had been praying and preparing for several months for revival. God answered our prayers in a wonderful way during these special services. Dr. Lenny and Joy Wisheart were the workers that God used to awaken, challenge, and encourage the church family and every one that attended the services and watched on the internet. I believe that "Take It To The Streets" ministry in preparing the meals was also vital to the entire revival. An average of 65 people enjoyed fellowship and food together before the services.

I encourage everyone to go back on line and watch the services again to remind and refresh ourselves of the great biblical principles that the Holy Spirit used from the Wishearts during the week. Just to remind you of the themes of the services here is a brief recap.

Sunday Morning: Being Able to Wait and Worship Revelation 2:1-5, 3:20

Key Thought: The church in Ephesus had LEFT there first love. They needed to remember where they left it and repent.
Worship is dependent upon our personal relationship with God.

Sunday Evening: Seven Questions on the Holy Life I Thessalonians 4:7

Key Thought: Jesus sacrifice on the cross for sin would be a failure if all sin could not be forgiven and cleansed from the human heart. Holiness is possible.

Monday Evening: Forgiveness Colossians 3:12, Luke 23:34

Key Thought: We need to give forgiveness in order to experience forgiveness.

When God forgives he forgets. Micah 7:19, Psalm 103:12

Tuesday Evening: In The Mean Time! I Peter 5:8-9, II Corinthians 10:3-5, Ephesians 6:12

Key Thought: Satan is trying to destroy the church, our relationships and you.

Don't waste our hurts. Our battles are always won or lost at the place of prayer.

Wednesday Evening: Crying Out to God! Psalm 107, Hebrews 5:7, Isaiah 40:9

Key Thought: God wants to hear your voice. Satan can not read your mind so he needs to hear you declare the truth out loud in order to defeat him.

Take time to review the services. There is no need for the revival to stop just because the special services are over. We can continue to grow in Christ and defeat the enemy in each and every area that he tries to attack us. Prayer is the key.

Praise the Lord, Pastor Dan
