Fighting A Spiritual Battle

Psalm 17:1-15

Prayer is essential to the Christian life. God commands us to pray (Luke 11:2, 18:1, I Thessalonians 5:17), and He uses people of prayer. What are the elements of an effective prayer life? First, we need God's ear—"Hear me." David was praying for "a just cause"; he was concerned about the will of God. But God will not hear us if we harbor deliberate sin in our lives, if we pray with "deceitful lips." He loves us too much to pamper us in our sins. To get God's ear, we must pray honestly, fervently, and submissively. We must be prepared in our hearts for the responsibility of prayer.

Second, we need God's eye—"examine me." David could have killed Saul on two occasions, but by faith he left his vindication with the Lord. God knew David's heart and He knows our hearts when we pray. God's Word and prayer go together. If we live by the Word of God, it keeps us in the will of God.

Third, we need God's hand—"deliver me." The word save (v7, 13) means "deliver." Notice that David's response is one of submission, and God's response is one of service. King David asks the King of Kings for help, and He responds to David's faith. His enemies think they have David cornered, but God's power goes to work for him.

Finally, we need God's face—"satisfy me." If our praying does not make us more like our Lord, our praying is in vain (Joshua 24:15). God's goal for each of us is that we will conform to the image of His Son (Romans 8:29). But we do not have to wait until we have walked through the valley of the shadow of death. We can be changed daily through God's Word and through prayer. Prayer and the Word of God will guide us into all truth. The Will of God can be accomplished in us here and now through prayer. We can become like Jesus.

God wants to use our prayers to accomplish His will in our lives and the lives of others. To be effective, our prayers need God's help. To fight and win the spiritual battles in our lives it is imperative that we align our lives to the Word of God and then walk according to His will.
